OVERVIEW

I am a 4th-year student at the Danang University of Science and Technology - Danang University, majoring in Software Engineering. During my studies, I have gained the basics of HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. Furthermore, I have expanded my knowledge and acquired the basics of ReactJS.

I possess strong teamwork skills, effective communication abilities, and a strong desire for continuous learning. I am currently seeking an opportunity to contribute as a front-end intern, where I can further develop my skills and apply my knowledge to real-world projects within your company. I am confident in my ability to successfully complete assigned tasks and make valuable contributions to the team.
